William S. Gavitt Promoted To Major In National Guard

MAJOR WM. S. GAVITT

Captain William S. Gavitt of Lyons has been promoted to the rank of Major in the New York Army National Guard, according to an announcement at the Headquarters, 1st Armored Rifle Battalion, 108th Infantry, at Auburn, N. Y.

Major Gavitt is presently serving as a staff member under Lt. Col. Charles Avery of Auburn. His duties as Operations and Training Officer for the Battalion take him to the armories in Auburn, Oswego, Cortland, and Geneva.

For seven years Major Gavitt was officer in charge and company commander of Company B stationed at the Geneva Armory. Major Gavitt enlisted in the army in January 1941 as a private, and served with the 27th Infantry Division at Ft. McClellan, Alabama. Commissioned in the Signal Corps, he was later assigned to the 91st Infantry Division on the West Coast, in North Africa and Italy. Under the Fifth Army in Italy he participated in the campaigns of the Arno River, the Appennines, and the Po Valley, and served with the occupation forces in the Trieste area. For a period he was assigned as a training advisor to the Brazilian Expeditionary Force in Italy. Upon release from the service in 1945, he was Assistant Division Signal Officer of the 91st Infantry Division.

In civilian life Major Gavitt is a Director and Assistant Cashier of the Lyons National Bank. He is a graduate of Lyons High School and Cornell University, and prior to World War II was in the employ of the Lincoln Alliance Bank & Trust Co. in Newark.

INSTALLATION SET JAN. 13 FOR MASONIC OFFICERS

Newly elected officers of Humanity Lodge, F. & A. M. will be installed Jan. 13 in the Geneva Road clubhouse. They are Charles E. Ennis, master; Robt. Fusmer, senior warden; Robt. Resue, junior warden; Fred W. Reule, treasurer; Wilfred M. Killick, seceretary; Wm. EXCHANGE STUDENTS INVITED TO TEA BY CIVIC CLUB

After the regular business meeting, Jan. 12, the Lyons Civic Club will hold an informal tea for the exchange students of Wayne County.

The following foreign students have been invited: Taylan Bedizel of Turkey and Clyde; Licurgo Estrada of the Philippines and Sodus; Viola Grosser of Germany and Lyons; Eria Magnani of Italy and Marion; Kimiko Suzuki of Japan and Newark; Anna Tcheprakoff of Turkey and Wolcott, and Juan Carlos Verblud of Argentina and Wolcott. Also the following American students who have been abroad under the AFS scholarship program: James Button, Sodus; Carol Pratt, Newark; Helen Vanderbilt, Clyde; and Ruth Walvoord, Williamson. No formal program has been planned, but we hope that many members and friends of the Civic Club will be there to welcome our guests and to chat with them person to person. It will give us all a chance to exchange views with those of wide and varied backgrounds in an atmosphere of friendly informality over the tea cups. The affair will be held in the Taylor Room at the Community Center, Tuesday, January 12, from 3:30 to 5 o'clock.

New Episcopal Rector To Give Organ Recital In Grace Church

This evening (Thursday), at 7:30 o'clock, the new rector of Grace Episcopal Church, Cyril V. Roberts, will give a concert of organ music in the church, at which the general public will have an opportunity to judge for themselves why the Episcopalians of Lyons are so overjoyed with the many talents of their new rector. The public is welcome to attend.

The Rev. Mr. Roberts will present a second organ recital on Thursday evening, January 21, and in February will give a series of three illustrated lectures in the Parish House on "The Smouldering Middle East Crisis" — of which he has recent first-hand knowledge, having been chaplain in Baghdad, Iraq, and archdeacon of the Church of England in Iraq and Eastern Arabia from February 1946 to January 1958.

Music lovers will be pleased to know that tonight's program of music includes works of Jeremiah Clarke, Dvorak, Bach, Tschaikowsky and Handel.

To all of these scheduled events Grace Episcopal Church invites the public without charge, although at the two organ recitals a voluntary offering will be taken toward the church's new choir robes.

Harry S. Sergeant Named Chairman By Supervisors

Harry S. Sergeant of Sodus, was elected chairman of the Wayne County Board of Supervisors at a meeting of the board Tuesday in the Court House. He succeeded Elmer E. Stell of Arcadia, who retired at the close of the year and whose post was taken by Dr. Milton Elzufon of Newark.

DENAGEL NAMED TO COUNTY POST

Richard DeNagel, 32 years old, son of Deputy Sheriff and Mrs. Cornelius P. DeNagel of Newark, began work Monday as an inspector of weights and measures in Wayne County. He is assisting Hudson H. Wright of Lyons, who has been sealer for the past 23 years.

Mr. Wright, who takes great pride in the work of the weights and measures department, quoted Mack Rapp, member of the National Scale Men's Association, in The New York Mirror of Dec. 15, last, as stating that the "present investigation into New York City butcher shops and other retail establishments should provide some comfort if it brings home to the general public that there is such a government agency as the local weights and measures department.

"Largely unsung and taken for granted, weights and measures departments throughout the country have been protecting both the buying public and, yes, the honest merchants by insuring that buyers get what they pay for and that sellers don't give away their profits through faulty, inaccurate weighing and measuring devices."

The new inspector is a veteran of World War II. He is a graduate of Newark High School, and attended the Kings Point Merchant Marine Academy and
