ANCESTOR'S SERVICE

"Section 1. Any man shall be eligible to membership in in the Society who, being of the age of eighteen years or over, and a citizen of good repute in the community, is the lineal descendant of an ancestor who was at all times unfailing in his loyalty to, and rendered active service in, the cause of American Independence, either as an officer, soldier, seaman, marine, militia man, or minute man, in the armed forces of the Continental Congress, or of any one of the several Colonies or States, or as a signer of the Declaration of Independence; or as a member of a Committee of Safety or Correspondence; or as a member of any Continental, Provincial, or Colonial Congress or Legislature; or as a recognized patriot who performed actual service by overt acts of resistance to the authority of Great Britain."—Constitution of National Society S. A. R., Article III, Section 1, adopted June 3, 1907, and as amended.

Membership is based upon one original claim; when the applicant derives eligibility by descent from more than one Revolutionary ancestor, and it is desired to file additional claims, separate applications, to be marked "Supplemental Applications," should be made in each case and filed with the original.

State fully such documentary or traditional authority as you found the following record upon, and also the residence of ancestors, with dates of birth and death, if known.

By order of the Board of Trustees, May 1, 1911, the recipient of a certificate granted on this application agrees to surrender his certificate upon failure to pay his membership dues, unless his membership shall cease by reason of death or actual disability, to be determined by the Society of which he is a member.

My ancestor's services in assisting in the establishment of American Independence during the War of the Revolution were as follows:

University of the State of New York.

Albany, N. Y., June 30, 1897

This is to certify that on page 9 of a manuscript volume entitled "Treasurer's Certificates, Vol. 8;" in the custody of the Regents of the University of the State of New York, in the State Library, the name of John More is recorded as a private soldier in August 1779, in the company commanded by Capt. Benjamin DuBois, belonging to the Eleventh Albany County Regiment of the New York State Militia, which regiment was under the command of Col. Anthony Van Bergen; also, that this same regiment was employed in active service in the revolutionary war.

GEORGE ROGERS HOWELL, Archivist,
(seal) Witness the seal of the University of New York.

For further record of the service of John More, see "A History of the More Family," page 30-31; published in 1895 at Binghamton, New York, by Samuel P. More. re: membership in National Society, Sons of the American Revolution.
