ANCESTOR'S SERVICE.

"SECTION 1. Any man shall be eligible to membership in the Society who, being of the age of twenty-one years or over, and a citizen of good repute in the community, is the lineal descendant of an ancestor who was at all times unfailing in his loyalty to, and rendered active service in, the cause of American independence, either as an officer, soldier, seaman, marine, militiaman, or minute man, in the armed forces of the Continental Congress, or of any one of the several Colonies or States, or as a signer of the Declaration of Independence; or as a member of a Committee of Safety or Correspondence; or as a member of any Continental, Provincial, or Colonial Congress or Legislature; or as a recognized patriot who performed actual service by overt acts of resistance to the authority of Great Britain."—Constitution of National Society S. A. R., Article III, Section 1, adopted June 3, 1907.

Membership is based upon one original claim; when the applicant derives eligibility by descent from more than one ancestor, and it is desired to take advantage thereof, separate applications, to be marked "Supplemental Application," should be made in each case and filed with the original.

State fully such documentary or traditional authority as you found the following record upon, and also the residence of ancestors, with dates of birth and death, if known.

By order of the Board of Trustees, May 1, 1911, the recipient of a certificate granted on this application agrees to surrender his certificate upon failure to pay his membership fee, unless his membership shall cease by reason of death or actual disability, to be determined by the State Society of which he is a member.

My ancestor's services in assisting in the establishment of American Independence during the War of the Revolution were as follows:

The records show that John Cooke was appointed Quartermaster March 15. 1777. - and served in the first Rhode Island Regiment, commanded by Colonel Christopher Greene Revolutionary war, His name appears as that of Ensign on the muster rolls of Captain Thomas Cole's company also designated as Captain Thomas Arnold's company. Same regiment from August 1778 to April 1779 on some of which rolls appears the remark: "Acting as Master". His name is borne as that of a Quartermaster on the rolls of the Field and Staff of the same period, and as that of a Lieutenant on a muster roll of Capt. Thomas Cole's company for May 1779 which shows him commissioned June 1. 1778. A muster roll of the first company same regiment covering the period from February to July 1780 bears the item "D. M. Discharged Sept 20. His name appears as that of a Lieutenant on a muster roll of the same company covering the period from August 1780 to January 1781 with remarks: "D. M. 20th Dec / Disch'd."
